In the Love and Truth of Jesus we grow

Our Year 5 children began their Little Rescuers training this week and it will carry on for the next 4. They learnt all about assessing a patient and what to do in an emergency. They had a fantastic time and the tutor was very complimentary of their behaviour and attitudes. Well done to the footballers in upper KS2: a defeat and a 3-0 win signs us off for the Christmas break. I'm incredibly proud of how the children lead us in Liturgy on Remembrance Day and how respectful all of the school were. They conveyed such an important message in a very reverent way. Lest we forget... Mr Moran.

Class News

Seedlings – This week we have produced some lovely poppy art as we have learnt about Remembrance Day. A fantastic week!

Saplings – This week we have begun to explore Little Red Riding Hood and we have had lots of fun imagining what it would be like to be in the story.

Sycamores – This week the children have worked very hard. They have totally amazed me with their participation and understanding of adjectives and nouns.

Poplars – This week we have created some outstanding poetry about Remembrance Day. They read beautifully and look lovely against our display.

Maples – For Remembrance Day, Maple class created some beautiful poppy fields using water colours and have made blackout poems based on the book 'Where the Poppies now Grow.'

Elms – This week Elm class have worked super hard learning about the environment and taking care of our planet. We made excellent booklets with advice for how to look after our world.

Hawthorns – This week, Year 5/6 have worked super hard and showed perseverance when learning tricky, new Maths concepts.

Chestnuts – Phenomenal effort in their Remembrance Day work and their learning about COP26.

Our fantastic award winners this week
– given for lots of wonderful things, please ask why if your child was a

Well done to Poplar again – four weeks in a row. They look like they're in the lead to claim the reward for best attendance at the end of this term.

Special mentions this week go to Xander for a mile run for Beavers, Darcie for her first ballet show, Emmie for dancing, Noel for being Cub of the Week, Jessica for passing L2 swimming and Jack for being player of the course. Well done!
